SUBJECT: Police ask for Publics Assistance in Identifying Robbery Suspect

BY: Officer Brad Wick, Information Coordinator

The Duluth Police are asking for the public's assistance in identifying the suspect in Monday mornings attempted robbery of the Holiday Station Store.

On Monday, November 16, 2009, at 1:59 AM, Duluth Police responded to the Holiday Station Store, 2605 London Road, on the report that someone had just attempted to rob it. The employee told officers that a single male suspect entered the store demanding money and said he had a gun. No gun or weapon was seen. Officers did a search of the area but were unable to locate the suspect.

The suspect is described as a black male, 28-40 years old, bald or shaven head, and 5'10" to 6' tall with a stocky build. He was wearing a white or cream colored long sleeve shirt, camouflage cargo pants, and tan boots(possible winter style). The suspect had a black stocking or handkerchief covering his face and was carrying a black bag.

Anyone with information about the suspect or the robbery is asked to call the Duluth Police Department Violent Crimes Unit at 218-730-5050. The investigation into the incident is ongoing.
